SE WELD JR.
FAIR ROYALTY

Camryn Dwyer has two sisters Kaitlyn and Courtney, and loves living in the Keenesburg community. She will be a senior at Weld Central High School this fall. Camryn is very involved in Weld Central's FFA program where she currently holds the office of President. Camryn has lettered in FFA as well as academics all three years at Weld Central and maintains a 4.4 GPA. Camryn is involved in 4H as well and enjoys showing her market lambs and hogs. In addition to her 4H animals, Camryn shows horses competitively on the Hunter/Jumper A circuit. After high school, Camryn plans to attend a university and receive an agricultural or animal science degree and proceed to Veterinary school where she hopes to become an equine surgeon. Camryn would like to thank the South East Weld County Fair Board for all their hard work to create this amazing Fair and Rodeo. She would also like to thank the community for all their support and allowing her to serve as their Lady-in-Waiting.

Mikayla Ruppel, your 2017 Southeast Weld County Fair Queen is the 17-year-old daughter of Paul and Amber Ruppel. She will be a Senior at Weld Central High School where she has lettered in volleyball, basketball, and FFA. She is also a member of the Circle A Family Rodeo and Colorado State High School Rodeo Association, competing in barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying and roping. In her spare time, she loves spending time with her family camping, boating, hunting, and helping on the family farm. Her family has taught her the value of hard work and dedication, and she will be forever grateful for the love and support each one of them provides and the values they have instilled. Mikayla's family has been a part of the Keenesburg community and the Southeast Weld County Fair for generations, and she is extremely proud to have the opportunity to share this experience with her great-grandfather, Ronald Schlagel, the 2017 SEWCF Grand Marshall. She would like to thank SEWCF fair board and the community for all the hard work and dedication involved in making the fair a great success each year. The past year has made her realize what a close, tight-knit community she belongs to and how it has been a privilege and honor to represent Southeast Weld County Fair.
